

Onde. Line

From flowers to houses.
Cracked planters motivated Joseph Monier to drown iron reinforcements into concrete.
From this Fo.Lies started an Arc.Hive of pipes, bridges and floors in reinforced concrete.

Onde.Line is a platform founded by four young architects.

Through the website ondeline.com they share ideas and projects on architecture and space,
using two main tools:

Fo.Lies and Arc.Hive.

While Fo.lies are ephemeral expressions,
inspirations, aspirations, bits, jokes, accidents,
nonsense, random, polemics, instincts,
impulses, intuitions, distractions,
Arc.hive is fully developed thought.

Since 2016 we collectively digest architectural research, professional experience and media culture in a sequence of publications, designs and studies.

Onde.Line is currently navigating between Italy,
Switzerland and Germany to catch inspirations and foster new visions through our diverse backgrounds and experiences.

It took 101 days and 8,000 km to demonstrate that an ancient population from Peru was able to colonize Polynesia around 500 a. C. The same expedition and sea currents brought about, 500 years later also Vikings populations. "SOME PEOPLE BELIEVE IN FATE, OTHERS DON'T. I DO, and I don't." Thor Heyerdahl, from the book Kon-Tiki: Across the Pacific by Raft.

In Beijing's construction boom many existing buildings were sacrificed and demolished. The residual debris is dumped around the city, often illegally. In 2013 even the Imperial Tombs from the Ming Dynasty in the city of Xi'an were not spared and the statue of one official was buried after the collapse of one of the containing walls. In China 5% of construction debris is recycled, in Japan 95%.

An heavy storm in the early '80s threw offboard a container filled with Garfield telephones, that since then emerge on the Brittany's shores. Only a local farmer found managed to find the source of this vintage debris: "You had to really know the area well," he told reporters.

Scott Adams
in his book

God's debris imagined an entity that knows "everything. Literally everything." This entity or God is continuously reassembling himself through the creation of a collective intelligence form call human race. According to Adams this constant reconstructive attempt has only one final consequence, the Big Bang, because an omniscient entity would already know everything possible except his own lack of existence.

The Teignmouth Electron is a 41-foot trimaran sailing vessel designed explicitly for Donald Crowhurst's ill-fated attempt to sail around the world in the Golden Globe Race of 1968. She became a ghost ship after Crowhurst reported false positions and presumably committed suicide at sea. The journey was meticulously catalogued in Crowhurst's found logbooks, which also documented the captain's thoughts, philosophy, and eventual mental breakdown.

Architecture is a consequence of Strategies. The abundance of skyscrapers – skyscreepers – triggers subsequent stock market returns as it indicates over-confidence. As stock market rise, prices follow and crashes are bound to happen, fueling slums and informal settlements with low-skilled workers and migrants.

Israely colonies are a survival strategy towards Its neighbours in the Middle East. Efficient settlements organized and secured like military compounds keep hostile Countries further from the mainland while claiming new one.

The Fujian tulou rural dwellings in China are a circular hut typology built between the 12th and the 20th century. The few external openings and the circular courtyard guaranteed a strong defense against intruders and a constant water supply.

Istinctively and explicitly the primitive hut is identified as the foudation for discussions around modern architecture. “Every beauty resides only in the most essential parts” M.A. Laugier, 1755. Today, the most direct connection can be found in bidonvilles and slums, urban conglomerate built by migrants around the biggest cities looking for hope and means to survive.

“I’m a survivor, I’m not gon’ give up
I’m not gon’ stop, I’m gon’ work harder
I’m a survivor, I’m gonna make it
I will survive, keep on survivin’ ”.
